CIRCA THEATRE JANUARY-APRIL 2021 SEASON

Kia ora and welcome to Circa Theatre's January-April 2021 Season. Instead of our traditional annual programme we will be presenting three separate and special 2021 seasons: January-April; May-August and September-December. Keep an eye out for more brochures in 2021 and visit www.circa.co.nz for the latest news and updates.

Again, we are proud to present a smorgasbord of vibrant, diverse and exciting theatre of the highest professional standard in our 45th year and we hope you enjoy what we have in store for you in the first four months of 2021.

A musical feast for the heart and soul

Ali Harper is back and this time showcasing the extensive hit songs of the one and only Burt Bacharach in The Look of Love. Bacharach's music has a sound like no other... poignant, atmospheric, beautiful. Get ready to be wowed by the Grammy award winner's extensive collection – Close To You, That's What Friends Are For, Anyone Who Had A Heart, I Say A Little Prayer, What's New Pussycat reminding us today more than ever of What The World Needs Now!

'Ali Harper lights up every room she enters, owns every stage she steps upon, steals every heart that hears her sing.' – Alex Rybeck, New York

'Harper transcends the "star" label to prove herself a true artist.' – John Smythe, Theatreview

Essential escapism from the everyday

With its trademark exploratory energy, this year's ChoreoCo show, A Floor, Some Thoughts, and Us, will provide essential escapism from the everyday. A regular feature on the New Zealand Fringe Festival calendar, ChoreoCo is Footnote's short-term company of exciting dance artists. Devised by dynamic choreographer Jeremy Beck, at the heart of A Floor, Some Thoughts, and Us lies a curiosity about the nature of creativity. Use these 50 minutes to forget about the daily grind and get pulled into something new.

THE LEE LETTER

Written by Claire Robinson

Directed by Ross Jolly

Sat 13 Mar, 2pm

Circa Two | $10 (Fringe addict)/$15/$19

It will come as a surprise to many today, that Michael Joseph (Joe) Savage, the Labour Party's first 'rockstar' leader, was likely also New Zealand's first closeted gay Prime Minister. Set during the turbulent 1935–40 period, The Lee Letter explores the deadly power struggle between an increasingly unstable and medication-reliant Savage and his 'frenemy', popular socialist MP John A (Jack) Lee. Once sharing a radical utopian vision for New Zealand, both men eventually destroyed each other's political careers before either could realise that vision.

Powerful theatre about sex, consent, and healthy relationships

Jamie and Ari like each other. Karin and Tom do too. They might be at two separate parties, but their stories are identical – until they really aren't. Part confession, part documentary, part open conversation, Yes Yes Yes is a theatre show created for young people that explores the knotty and necessary topics of healthy relationships, consent, and desire. This latest work from award-winning duo Karin McCracken and Eleanor Bishop blends audience interaction with captivating solo performance and features in-depth interviews with teenagers from around Aotearoa New Zealand.

Outstanding Performance, Karin McCracken, Wellington Theatre Awards 2019. Excellence in Theatre for Social Change. Wellington Theatre Awards 2019. Excellence for Overall Production, Auckland Theatre Awards 2019.

Suitable for ages 14+. Warning: this show discusses sexual violence.

"My 14-year-old son and I went – the show was a catalyst for conversations we'd never had. This is a really, really good show for anyone with teenagers and wannabe nearly teenagers." – Parent

Originally commissioned by Auckland Live and produced by Zanetti Productions.

“Strasbourg 1518 seizes your imagination and emotions with an uncompromising grasp” – Leah Maclean, Regional News

Strasbourg 1518. A city on the brink. The triple threat of escalating inequality, rampant misogyny and a devastating drought threaten to break the town in two. When a lone woman steps out of her house and begins to dance, everyone is bewildered. But within days, hundreds more have followed her lead. As the authorities invent ever more bizarre ways to resolve this new crisis, the city falls one by one into a delirious hypnosis of a real-life dance with death.

“Strasbourg 1518 is as chilling and wild, and as beautiful, as you want dance in the theatre to be.” – Dance Aotearoa New Zealand/Michelle Potter ‘On Dancing’, Jennifer Shennan.

Strasbourg 1518 was produced by Borderline Arts Ensemble with the support of the New Zealand Festival, Creative New Zealand, Wellington City Council, Wallace Arts Trust, Wellesley Studios, Wellington Community Trust, the Australian High Commission, and the Theatre Artists Charitable Trust. Strasbourg 1518 was commissioned by the New Zealand Festival and premiered in March 2020, returning to Circa Theatre and the Auckland Arts Festival in 2021.

“Thomas Monckton is a comic genius” – Dominion Post (NZ)

Comedy and circus sensation Thom Monckton will astound you in The Artist: an incredible feat of physical strength, skilled theatrics, and comedic storytelling. To be in the audience of a Thom Monckton performance is spellbinding, as he makes a spectacular experience out of the ordinary. An artist arrives at his paint-splattered studio ready to create a new work. He waits for inspiration. Focus strays, the blank canvas terrifies, and the tools have been lost to the bowels of the atelier. The Artist is a show combining hilarious clowning and physical theatre about the rough graft of an artist. Another collaboration from the creators of worldwide smash-hit The Pianist.

“This world-class performer has accomplished what feels like a full day’s work in his artist’s studio with an ease that belies the years of training that have brought him to this exquisite moment.” – Theatreview (NZ)

“A masterpiece of hilarious chaos” – Scotsman (UK)

It's time to fly

Mattie is off to college in an hour – and she's left it to Mum to pack her case. Mum won't miss the blaring music, slamming doors and massive phone bills. But Mattie is no ordinary teenager, and will Mum cope without her? Up Down Girl is an honest and uplifting play about the extraordinary life of a person with Down syndrome and their mother's humorous perspective on bringing them up.

Circa is an incorporated society also registered under the Charities Act 2005 (registration number CC31347).

In 1987, Circa Theatre established the Theatre Artists Charitable Trust (TACT) to provide financial support to the creative artists (actors, playwrights, directors, etc) and help them achieve a viable income and career as professional artists. The support the artists receive from TACT through founding sponsor Chapman Tripp, Creative New Zealand, and individual donors such as yourself, is vital to ensure we can continue to bring world-class theatre to Wellington. Any donation, big or small, is greatly appreciated. Simply visit circa.co.nz/arty500 to donate by credit or debit card.

Theatre Artists Charitable Trust is a charitable trust registered under the Charitable Trusts Act 1957 (registration number CC28898).

Circa Theatre offers sincere thanks to the generous philanthropists and organisations who make it possible for us to continue to bring world class theatre to Wellington.
