

WTF! Play Readings Women's Theatre Festival 2018

Celebrating Women's Voices
17 Aug - 27 Oct

This year WTF! will feature performances, workshops, forums, the fourth Women in Theatre Hui and of course two Play Readings.

We are excited to present two new works Sean Penn is in His Boat by Josephine Stewart-Tewhiu and Tender by Judith Cowley.

Sean Penn is in His Boat

By Josephine Stewart-Tewhiu
Directed by Perry Piercy

22 September 2pm
$15 - $19

Presented by arrangement with

Josephine was named Runner Up in the Adam NZ Play Award in 2016 for her play Sean Penn is in His Boat, a funny and compelling tale of middle-aged siblings dealing with the death of their mother the same week as the devastating Hurricane Katrina in New Orleans.

Josephine Stewart-Tewhiu (Ngāpuhi/Te Rarawa) is an Auckland based writer and actor.

Tender

By Judith Cowley
Directed by Hilary Norris

29 September 2pm
$15 - $19

Judith Cowley presents the first draft of her newest play. One weekend, four middle-aged women clean up their parents' Bach before it is sold. They argue about childhood memories and family loyalties, but it's only when secrets are revealed, that the sisters really understand what loyalty is.

"Even though stories were an important part of my upbringing and everyday life, I didn't start writing them until recently. I find it so satisfying, to create characters and worlds and to see what happens. Tender is my first full-length play." - Judith Cowley
