“To begin at the beginning...” Join us at Circa Theatre for Dylan Thomas’ masterpiece Under Milk Wood, a delightful if peculiar story of the daily life in “Llareggub” (read it backwards), a small Welsh town by the sea.

Meet the eccentric townsfolk... Captain Cat, the old blind sea captain who dreams of his drowned shipmates and lost lover, Myfanwy Price, the sweetshop-keeper lusting after Mog Edwards; Organ Morgan, obsessed with his organ; postman Willy Nilly who reads his neighbours’ letters, Mrs. Ogmores-Pritchard, relentlessly nagging her two dead husbands... Polly Garter, Nogood Boyo, Lord Cut-Glass and many others. Walk along Coronation Street, down to the little fishing harbour as Thomas explores their lives, dreams, disappointments and desires.

Rich with haunting, indelible images of humanity and dreams, our production of this much loved classic will feature an evocative video landscape by Johanna Sanders, a haunting composed soundtrack from Gareth Farr, lighting design by maestro Marcus McShane, costumes design by the amazing Shelia Horton and an intriguing set by Andrew Foster.

Five amazing actors play over 60 roles - (Kathleen Burns, Jeff Kingsford-Brown, Simon Leary, Carmel McGlone and Gavin Rutherford) - and of course centre-stage is the hilarious magic of Thomas’ sharp wit and wonderful, mischievous use of language.

“The voices of Dylan Thomas’ Under Milk Wood rise and fall, crashing into each other like waves under a milky moon, their sweet prose an effervescence of sounds and syllables to intoxicate the soul.” – Good Reads

Under Milk Wood is an unforgettable journey... sad and sensual, bawdy and beautiful. Tickets are now on sale and are, much to our delight, selling very fast. See you there.

We are not wholly bad or good, who live our lives under Milk Wood.
